THE FINANCIAL ADVICE PROCESS

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different. What is right for one client may not be right for another.

Where we provide personal advice, we will listen to you to understand your objectives and circumstances. We will also ask questions to make sure we address all issues.

When we first provide personal advice to you it will be explained thoroughly and documented in a Statement of Advice (SoA) which you can take away and read. The SoA will explain the basis for the advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, any benefits we may receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

For managed funds and personal risk insurance we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement. This contains information to help you understand the product being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about the advice provided.

You can provide instructions to us in writing, via phone or via email. Please note you are responsible for ensuring your instructions do however reach us.

We may provide further advice to you to keep your plan up to date for changes in your circumstances, changes in the law and changes in the economy and products.

If we provide further advice it will typically be documented in a Record of Advice (RoA) which we retain on file. You can request a copy of the RoA document at any time up to 7 years after the advice is provided.

FEES

All fees are payable to Forrest Private Wealth.

How will I pay for the service?

Forrest Private Wealth offers a fee based approach. We operate on a full disclosure policy for any fees received by us and our Authorised Representatives.

You will receive a Statement of Advice (SoA) detailing remuneration received by Forrest Private Wealth and its Authorised Representatives prior to making a decision on recommendations in the SoA.

You have a right to request further information in relation to the remuneration received by Forrest Private Wealth and its Authorised Representatives. The fees Forrest Private Wealth receives can be separated into either Initial Advice fee, Implementation fee or Ongoing Services fees.

Initial Advice Fee

This Initial Advice fee includes all meetings with you, the time we take to determine our advice and the production of the Statement of Advice (SoA).

This fee is based on the scope and complexity of advice provided to you. We will provide you with our 'Terms of Engagement' before starting your SoA. All fees are agreed upon before any work commences.

Implementation Fee

If you decide to proceed with our advice we may charge a fee for the time we spend assisting you with implementation. We will let you know what the fee will be in the SoA.

Ongoing Services Fees

Once your strategy and/or portfolio has been established we will typically provide you with ongoing advice services.

Ongoing fees will depend on the service we provide to you. They are typically a percentage of your portfolio value, an agreed fixed fee, which is paid monthly, or a combination of both. We may also charge you a transaction fee on our services specific to each share trade you undertake.

The services and fees will be set out in the SoA or RoA that we provide to you.

COMMISSIONS

We receive commissions and other benefits from some product and service providers. The commission amount will vary depending on the product or service which is recommended. We will tell you the exact amount in the SoA or RoA.

Insurance Commissions

Forrest Private Wealth may receive upfront commission when you take out an insurance policy we recommend. We also may receive a monthly commission payment for as long as you continue to hold the policy.

Investment Commissions

Forrest Private Wealth may receive a monthly commission payment from some investment providers. This will be based on your account balance and will continue to be paid for as long as you hold the investment.

Placement Fees

Forrest Private Wealth may receive placement fees where you invest in some listed investments (eg bank issued hybrids and IPO's). These will be paid by the issuer of the investment and will typically be a set % of the investment amount.

Other Benefits

We may also receive additional benefits by way of sponsorship of educations seminars, conference or training days. Details of any benefits received above $100 will be maintained on a register which is available to you on request.

FINANCIAL PLANNER REMUNERATION

Trusts controlled by Peter Stevens are entitled to the profits of the business.

Michael Bower and Jerry Lin are employed by the practice and are paid salaries. They may also receive a performance bonus which is based on a number of factors including the revenue that they generate for the practice.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

We may hold investments we recommend

Your financial planner may recommend investments in shares that they hold or may hold in the future. You will be advised where a conflict of interest may exist and how the conflict will be managed.

We will generally collect this information directly from you however in some cases we will seek your authority to collect if from other parties such as your accountant or your superannuation fund.

If you do not provide us with all of the information that we request, we may not be able to provide our services to you.

We will hold and use your personal information so that we can continue to provide our services to you. We will only disclose your personal information to external parties where:

- The law requires us to do so
- You consent for us to do so

Our Privacy Policy contains further information on how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information. It also sets out how you can access the information we hold about you, how to have it corrected and how to complain where you are not satisfied with how we have handled your personal information. Our full Privacy Policy is available on our website.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Does a large financial institution or bank own Forrest Private Wealth?

Forrest Private Wealth is a Director owned financial planning practice. We have our own AFSL which means we can look at all asset classes and investment vehicles because unlike many financial planning firms, we are not owned by or operate under a major bank, financial institution or large dealer group.

Being Director owned means we have no restrictions on which strategies, products and investments we can recommend to clients.

We can recommend virtually any investment option available to Australian investors. Decisions are made on an objective basis determined by product quality alone and whether it will help meet client objectives.

What does a Financial Planner do?

A Financial Planner helps you to define and understand your goals and is focused on helping you maximise the probability of achieving these goals and assisting you in making smart financial decisions.

A Financial Planner will assist in developing a path to follow whether your goals are short, medium or long term.

A financial planner can help educate you about financial matters such as insurance, superannuation, interest rates, stock markets etc.

When should I see a Financial Planner?

Usually people seek advice from us when there is a specific need like planning to retire, buying a first home or protecting assets.

Seeking a Financial Planner is valuable at any time in your life. We can help you set and achieve your financial goals no matter what your life circumstances are.

Is it expensive to see a Financial Planner?

It depends on what your needs are. At Forrest Private Wealth, we clearly define the cost to clients before agreeing and accepting any work. You essentially determine the cost (based upon our fee), as you decide what level of service or advice you require.

Is Financial Planning only for those who have a lot of money?

This is a common misconception that Financial Planning is only worthwhile if you have significant wealth. Forrest Private Wealth helps a diverse set of clients from all sorts of backgrounds and financial needs.

You don't need to be well off to start a financial plan; the plan to create wealth for you.

What outcomes can I expect from using a Financial Planner?

Depending on how engaged you are with your Financial Planner, we can assist you with:

- Developing a customised financial plan to help you achieve financial success with little impact on your after tax cash flow.
- Providing clarity about your investments and risk insurance.
- Peace of mind knowing a qualified, professional is reviewing and monitoring your portfolio and keeping you on track towards your financial goals and objectives.
- Certainty, knowing that if something happens to you, your family and children are looked after and that their assets pass to the ones you love per your instructions.

Will you give me advice that is suitable to my investment needs and financial circumstances?

Yes. To do so we need to find out your individual investment objectives, financial situation and needs before we recommend any investment to you.

You have the right not to divulge this information to us, if you do not wish to do so. In that case, we are required to warn you about the possible consequences of us not having your full personal information.

What should I know about any risks of the investments or investment strategies recommended to me?

We will explain to you any significant risks of investments and strategies that we recommend to you.

Do I get detailed information about actual commissions and other benefits my adviser gets from making the recommendations?

Yes. You have the right to know about details of commissions and other benefits your adviser may receive for recommending investments.

All commissions, fees and other benefits received by your Financial Planner, as a result of providing advice, are clearly detailed in writing. A SoA will also be given to you in writing at the time the advice is given.

What information do you maintain in my file and can I examine my file?

We maintain a record of your personal profile that includes details of your investment objectives, financial situation and needs. We also maintain records of any recommendations made to you. If you wish to examine your file, we can make arrangements for you to do so.

As a financial service provider, we have an obligation under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Act to verify your identity and the source of any funds.

This means that we will ask you to present identification documents such as passports and driver's licence. We will also retain copies of this information. We assure you that this information will be held securely.

Can I tell you how I wish to instruct you to buy or sell my investment?

Yes. You may specify how you would like to give us instructions. For example, by email or telephone.
